

THE WOMEN

MARIYAM KHAZEERA

April 2025

1 Summary

This book is about the hardships faced by women in society. This book portrays the story of a woman who endured a lot of pain from her husband and society. The woman named Aisha faces every problem in her life and changes the obstacles in her life to meet her goals. This shows the courage of women and their ability to brighten her future. Aisha is a poor lady who married Aman, an engineer. He was a male chauvanist in this story. He always beat her wife every day. One day aisha decides to divorce him and to live her new life, but when she discussed the divorce with her family. But they were not interested in it and also tried to stop her from the decision. But she decided to leave him and start a new business. All the people around her mocked her, but she does not care. She started her new boutique and lived her life happily.

2 My view about the book

the great story i have ever read. It motive to overcome every obstacles in the life. It teaches me the courage ,confidence and determination is in the life.